BagBoys by Own / MasterClass

Mon. Oct. 29 - Thur. Nov. 1 / 9am - 5pm / MIU Fashion Department

The silhouette produced by each student and presented on the runway will be made of 3 pieces and shoes.

The Biker Jacket (Perfecto) / Challenge "Volume"

From 2 vintage sleeping bags, the student will rework them into a biker jacket while emphasizing padding and studding.

The Down Vest (Doudoune) / Challenge "Graphic"

This second piece will be very graphic and will be worn over the biker jacket.

The Classic Black Trouser / Challenge "Embellishment"

From 2 pairs of vintage classic black trousers, the student will redesign the volume of the trousers while incorporating a cowboy boot style on the bottom of the trouser using traditional embroidery and stuffing techniques.

The Shoes / These Bags are Made for Walking / Challenge "Customization"

2 black leather vintage women's handbags will be transformed into gaiters.

Own Work - Exhibition and Fashion Show

Based in Brussels, since 1998 the label Own by -Thierry Rondenet & Herve Yvrenogeu - has offered a selection of men's clothes conceived for everyday use.

Own is an open collective, bringing together people from different art forms. In the same spirit of collaboration, Own has worked in partnership with Adidas for limited edition sneakers and with Cacharel for their menswear collections.

Own opened in 2004 for their first flagship store in Brussels and soon after presented its first collection for women.

Own is developing projects that blend style, design and art.

Thierry Rondenet and Herve Yvrenogeu, who also teach in the Fashion School department at La Cambre, will direct their first Arts of Fashion MasterClass / Intense specialized training exclusive to our 2007 Symposium Miami.
